Name: _____ Class: _____ ( ) Teacher: _____ Date: _____

iNKY ISSUE 150 Cloze Passage

TASK Based on the information in the news article, complete the following text by writing ONE word in each blank below. Your answers must be grammatically correct.

Environmental Willpower

Many young people today have adopted eco-friendly habits, such as carrying (1)r_____ water bottles and buying second-hand clothes. However, some people question whether this "green lifestyle" is truly a long-term (2)c_____. Without genuine motivation, such habits may simply (3)f_____ away.

Green habits include avoiding single-use plastics and supporting (4)s_____ products. While these small steps may seem (5)i_____ on their own, their combined impact can be powerful. A 2023 study found that young consumers have come to (6)e_____ these habits more than older generations.

Today's young people have grown up in a time of strong environmental (7)a_____. Social media has helped (8)a_____ this concern, allowing young voices to spread their messages widely. Consequently, Generation Z and Millennials are beginning to (9)r_____ the marketplace, turning shopping into a statement of values.

Eco-living, however, presents real challenges. (10)R_____ energy sources often come at a higher price. This makes eco-friendly options less (11)a_____ to those with limited income. Social pressure can also reduce green choices to a mere (12)s_____ gesture.

Despite these obstacles, (13)c_____ efforts from schools and communities can make green living easier for everyone. Such efforts lead to a (14)t_____ of individual responsibility into a shared culture. Ultimately, green habits that are rooted in genuine values demonstrate true (15)e_____.

1.	2.	3.
4.	5.	6.
7.	8.	9.
10.	11.	12.
13.	14.	15.

KEY

Environmental Willpower

Many young people today have adopted eco-friendly habits, such as carrying (1)r_____ water bottles and buying second-hand clothes. However, some people question whether this "green lifestyle" is truly a long-term (2)c_____. Without genuine motivation, such habits may simply (3)f_____ away.

Green habits include avoiding single-use plastics and supporting (4)s_____ products. While these small steps may seem (5)i_____ on their own, their combined impact can be powerful. A 2023 study found that young consumers have come to (6)e_____ these habits more than older generations.

Today's young people have grown up in a time of strong environmental (7)a_____. Social media has helped (8)a_____ this concern, allowing young voices to spread their messages widely. Consequently, Generation Z and Millennials are beginning to (9)r_____ the marketplace, turning shopping into a statement of values.

Eco-living, however, presents real challenges. (10)R_____ energy sources often come at a higher price. This makes eco-friendly options less (11)a_____ to those with limited income. Social pressure can also reduce green choices to a mere (12)s_____ gesture.

Despite these obstacles, (13)c_____ efforts from schools and communities can make green living easier for everyone. Such efforts lead to a (14)t_____ of individual responsibility into a shared culture. Ultimately, green habits that are rooted in genuine values demonstrate true (15)e_____.

1. reusable	2. commitment B2	3. fade C1
4. sustainable B2	5. insignificant	6. embrace B2
7. awareness B2	8. amplify	9. redefine
10. Renewable C2	11. accessible C1	12. symbolic C1
13. collective C1	14. transformation C1	15. endurance C2